Tenant Qualification Criteria

We abide by the Equal Opportunity In Housing laws in letter and spirit. We commit to meet every aspect of the Oregon Landlord Tenant Law. We want our customers to be pleased with their home and we work to meet the trust that is placed with us by the owners of the property who have selected our company to provide management services.

Our tenant screening process involves the following things:

1. We need to know how much your monthly income is and have the ability to verify your income. This will involve contacting your employer and/or reviewing your pay stubs or bank checking account. In general, we need to see monthly income that is approximately 3 times the amount to the rent for the property you are considering. Exceptions can be made, but here is where we start. An exception will usually involve a greater deposit.
2. We need to know about your most recent housing arrangement and the one previous to that. This may be by contacting your present landlord and former landlord or reviewing your mortgage payment history. We will need to know what your monthly payment was and if it was paid in a timely manner.
3. We will conduct a credit report on all applicants for the rental property that are 18 years of age or older. Most units require fair to excellent credit to qualify, some exceptions may apply.
4. We will conduct a criminal background investigation on all applicants for the rental property.
5. We will conduct a public records search to determine if you have ever been evicted.
6. We will need to see photo-identification for each applicant that corresponds to the application that is submitted. All residents of the property who are 18 years of age or older must submit an application.

In considering an application for rent we evaluate the information we receive in the above screening, all of which is taken in to form a picture of your ability to qualify for the property you are wishing to rent. Rarely will a single issue preclude us from renting to a prospective tenant, though there are certain situations that make it very difficult, such as a criminal history or past evictions.

Oregon applicants are $35 per person, outside of Oregon is $45 per person. If you wish, you can ask for us to review your application and discuss anything that you think may fall into the above disqualifying matters or that may create a challenge for us in successfully renting to you, as outlined below.

Security Deposits. All of our rental units require a security deposit which may vary, depending on the property. We do not collect non-refundable deposits, nor do we charge last month's rent on most units, however, at a minimum, upon the termination of the rental agreement we will have the carpets and blinds professionally cleaned and if needed, we will have a cleaning service visit the unit to address anything requiring attention after you have vacated. These charges are deducted from your deposit. Deposit amounts may increase to accommodate for fuel oil, pets, credit issues, income standards, new employment or such other matters as may be determined to qualify an applicant for the property. Additional charges that will be deducted from a deposit are unpaid rent, collection actions or court costs, damage or repairs and any unpaid utility charges.

Pets. Some units allow pets and some do not. For insurance reasons, certain breeds of dogs are not acceptable under any circumstances. If you have a question let us know. If you have an authorized pet and it creates disturbances such as barking, defecating in neighboring lawns, getting into garbage or acting any kind of threatening manner, or causes damage to the unit then the pet must go or the lease/rental agreement will terminate.
